

Colonel Brian Lindamood
United States Army
Commander
Pine Bluff Arsenal

Colonel Lindamood was born at Fort Bragg, NC. He was commissioned through the Officer Candidate School, Fort Benning, GA in 1982 after graduating from the University of New Mexico.

COL Lindamood's assignments include duty in parachute, light and mechanized infantry, armor, and armored cavalry units. High level staff tours include U.S. Army Personnel Command, the Army Staff, and the Joint Staff.

COL Lindamood commanded the Army's Technical Escort Unit at Edgewood, MD. During his command tour he participated in numerous WMD-related operations and exercises in support of U.S. Special Operations Command, the regional combatant commanders, and a host of interagency players. As a chemical officer he has extensive experience working WMD issues from the tactical to the strategic level.

COL Lindamood holds a Master of Arts degree in Military History from LSU and a Master of Strategic Studies degree from U.S. Army War College.

Before assuming command of Pine Bluff Arsenal on 8 July 2005, he was the deputy director of the U.S. Army Joint Requirements Office for Chemical, Biological, Radiological, and Nuclear Defense in Washington, D.C.

He is married to the former Susan Harvey of Anniston, AL. They have two children – Emily (17) and Aimee (14). Hobbies include golf, fishing, reading, and writing.
